VICTIM 1:	Citi Bank	AGE:

SUMMARY: On September 17, 2007, at approximately 1251 hours, Carlsbad Police Department's Communication Center received a robbery alarm activation from Citi Bank, 1810 Marron Road. At 1253 hours, they also received a 911 call from the bank stating that a robbery had just occurred and the suspect was a Hispanic male adult in his late twenties. The suspect approached a teller and presented a demand note stating, "This is a robbery." The teller gave the suspect an amount of money, unknown at this time. The suspect left the bank on foot and got into a white Toyota truck then fled the area in an unknown direction. A second suspect, described only as a Hispanic male, occupied the Toyota truck that suspect number one got into. Suspect number one was described as a Hispanic male adult in his late twenties, wearing a baseball cap and sunglasses. Officers conducted a search of the area for the suspects with negative results. The FBI also responded and is conducting a joint investigation.
